

CALLING ALL GROUPS AND SINGLES— GET THE WHOLE NEIGHBORHOOD TOGETHER TO CELEBRATE EARTH HOUR 2011

BEFORE EARTH HOUR

- Take a stand—pledge to take part in Earth Hour at EarthHourCanada.org
- Post your Earth Hour poster from bchydro.com in your home, at work, or in a place where others can see it.
- Promote Earth Hour to your friends and family—encourage everyone to turn off their lights!
- Simplify the clutter of paper bills and save a tree. Go paperless with your BC Hydro bill. Go to bchydro.com/youraccount/content/why_go_paperless.jsp to register.

DURING EARTH HOUR

- Turn off your lights for one hour during Earth Hour.
- Fondue Party. Energy efficient meal or dessert choice and have all your guests bring an item to dip!
- Gather your friends for a candle-lit dinner or potluck.
- Attend local Earth Hour events.
- Go outside and look at the stars.
- Find a great viewing spot to see your town or city go dark at 8:30 p.m.
- Visit local restaurants and businesses taking part in Earth Hour.
- Turn your thermostat down by 1°. And leave it there.
- Take a walk in the moonlight.
- Have a wine tasting in the dark.
- Make a list of ways you could reduce your energy consumption every hour of every day.

AFTER EARTH HOUR

- Take pictures and post them to the Earth Hour Facebook page.
- Blog, Twitter or Facebook about what you did for Earth Hour.
- Make everyday Earth Hour!
- Join Team Power Smart at bchydro.com and commit to save 10% on your BC Hydro bill.
- Attend other Earth friendly events in your community year round:
 - Earth Day—April 22
 - World Ocean's Day—June 8
